Application form

Sacramento City College has begun a statewide search for former Japanese American students whose studies at the college were suspended in 1942, when Executive Order 9066 was issued. If you, a member of your family or a friend were forced to leave Sacramento City College because of the order, please fill out this Application Form, and return it to the above address. For more information, including a preliminary list of potentially affected students, please visit www.scc.losrios.edu/scc_nisei_diploma_project.xml.
