

President's Message

Welcome to Sacramento City College!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to our campus! Amongst our outstanding faculty, staff and administrators we want to invite you to become a part of something bigger on your path to success. Join us in embarking on our second hundred years as an established institution of community and growth. As a diverse and open college, we are here to serve your needs beyond education. Sacramento City College is a place to discover your goals. This catalog includes information on how to enroll; details on the college's diverse programs, degrees and certificates; and general information regarding the support services available. It is a reference map for you to use in navigating your choices here at SCC.

Sacramento City College is a Hispanic Serving Institution and a diverse community college and is proud to serve the higher education needs at a various locations including our West Sacramento and Davis centers. SCC offers both degree and certificate programs designed for you to achieve your educational goals. In tandem with our exceptional instructors, the college supports you with a number of services, such as counseling, tutoring and work experience opportunities. We have a range of flexible courses and encourage you to take advantage of all the great programs and services available to assist you in building a schedule that meets your needs and prepares you for high paying jobs, transfer opportunities, and career advancement in your chosen field.

In particular, we encourage you to engage in our many student leadership opportunities. You'll find your involvement in these activities has a direct impact on your overall college experience. Utilize our Student Leadership & Development, the Student Associated Council, and a host of student clubs and start your search by checking out our Campus Life page: www.scc.losrios.edu/campus-life/. Taking on college leadership roles can prepare you to take on leadership roles in your chosen professional field. Investing in your interests outside of the classroom will broaden your perspective and expose you to a vast network of support and new connections to make real world connections and extend your experience beyond the classroom.

Make use of this catalog as a tool for success. Take advantage of all the opportunities available through your time here. I wish you success and thank you for joining Sacramento City College in forging the next century of community, exploration, and achieving personal goals!

Sincerely,
